Additional Notes:

1. All persons receiving a benefit from the grant must be a member of RSAYS.
2. A request for a grant can be submitted at any time. However, the Trustees of the Foundation will consider such requests at the next Trustees' meeting. Trustees normally meet four times a year. Requests may be considered and grants awarded more frequently, at the discretion of the Trustees.
3. The Trustees reserve the right to provide only part of the funding sought by an applicant.
4. There is no limit to the number of times an applicant can seek or be awarded a grant by the Foundation.
5. Successful applicants must use the funds expressly for the purpose for which the grant was approved.
6. It is a condition of the grant that a report on the activity or project be submitted to the Foundation upon completion.
7. All materials submitted with a grant request shall become the property of the Foundation and all decisions by the Trustees regarding a grant award are final.
